

Contents

Introduction

FERENC HÖRCHER: Universal Morality: Contemporary Socio-Political and Philosophical Stakes	7
--	---

I. RELIGION AND MORALITY

GÁBOR BALÁZS: Is a Universal Morality Possible According to Jewish Tradition?	21
TAMÁS BÉRES: Under the Rainbow, over the Greed– Universal Morality in the Age of Globalization	31
GÉZA KUMINETZ: The Connections Between Personal Maturity and moral consciousness – From a Catholic Perspective	39
VIRÁG DYEKISS: I'll Take Revenge for my Mother's Soul, but Killing without Reason is Sin Morals and Values in Siberian Nganasan Society	61

II. HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES I. CLASSICAL APPROACHES

ÁGOSTON GUBA: Common Preconceptions and their Application in Epictetus	71
TAMÁS NÓTÁRI: On the Role of Ethical Maxims in the System of Classical Interpretation of Law	83
ZOLTÁN FRENYÓ: Saint Augustine on the foundation of morals and the reason for a normative ethics	94
ÁDÁM SMRCZ: General Consent and Universal Morality – An Early Modern Platonist View	104

III. HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES II. MODERN APPROACHES

MOJCA KÜPLEN: Love for Natural Beauty as a Mark of a Good Soul: Kant on the Relation between Aesthetics and Morality	115
---	-----

Gábor GÁNGÓ: Judgement in Politics: Responses to International Insecurity from Hannah Arendt and Immanuel Kant	128
GÁBOR KOVÁCS: 'Why is Goodness a Destroying Force?' Morality and Politics in the Political Philosophy of Hannah Arendt	143
BÉLA MESTER: Dignity of Human Beings – Dignity of Animal Beings – A Case Study: Bulls as Gladiators	151

IV. CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHICAL PERSPECTIVES I. GENERAL APPROACHES

TAMÁS PAÁR: A Possible Contradiction in Discrediting Morality: The Queerness of the Argument from Queerness	163
ZOLTÁN BALÁZS: Principles or Values?	170
Iwona BARWICKA-TYLEK: The Aporia of Morality and Law in Democratic States	180
Zoltán TURGONYI: Taking Disanthropocentrism Seriously – Outlines of a Hypothetical Natural Law	192
ÁKOS SIVADÓ: Two Kinds of Moral Relativism	205

V. CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHICAL PERSPECTIVES II. CASE STUDIES

SZILÁRD TATTAY: Multiculturalism and Ethical Objectivism/Relativism	217
RENATA KATALIN SMITH – JOSÉ COLEN: Lifting the Veil of Relativism	225
MIKLÓS LEHMANN: Morality and Empathy in the Digital Age	237
Gábor SZÉCSI – Inez KOLLER: Community and Morality in the Information Age	246
Contributors	257
Index of Names	259